Dear Sir:

On or about January 27th I sent you, what I thought ~~was~~ was a very friendly and informative letter concerning something serious that I thought you as head of one of our most important security organizations should know. But to date I've not had an acknowledgement. I realize that the info I gave you may not have been important as your agents probably see 10 times as much as I do but I still think I'm entitled to an answer. If this is way you treat all people that send in tips that they sincerely believe important then all I can say is God help America. I might add that in the last 28 years I've written to Naval Intelligence, Customs, Army and the F.B.I., all have had the courtesy to reply. In the future I will write to other sources. Your Dept muffed the Korean attack, when any seaman or soldier in the Inchon area could have told you an attack was only a question of time. The US Army had guards around the Russian Embassy and they were particularly aware of conditions that posted at that time

Yours truly

Arthur L. Lewis

P.S. If you draw conclusions from this letter that I am angry you can be damned sure you're right.

I don't like to be ignored even if I am a stupid, ignorant seaman, especially where the safety of my country is concerned.

Central Intelligence Agency 00-680 att Mr. Allen Dulles Sir,

Dear Sir:

I am a seaman and have been going Japan for about 14 years and as a result I know a few people rather intimately. My point in writing is that there is a terrific undercurrent of hatred for Americans it seems to be building up more each trip, even among my friends a word slips out now & then which proves to me atleast, that their friendship is only on the surface it can be noticed in ~~many~~ ^{many} little things that to me shows hatred & contempt. This is my opinion I am sure you have many operatives in Japan however I feel safer in sending this note, sometimes even good agents miss a point now & then. I intend to send a copy of this to Naval Intelligence & Army also. I don't mean to imply that you don't know what is going on, I only wish to pass on my observations. This is very noticeable in small towns and in Nagoya, I was there for three day New Year's holiday and talked to 20 or thirty people, I also have a subtle way of getting people to answer me off guard, and this is when I get their true feeling, maybe I'm overly alarmed but I thought your agency should know.

Hoping that this note may prove valuable, I remain,

Respectfully

Arthur L. Lewis

P.S. I met a young man in Nagoya on the street car. and we talked about an half hour, he was ~~and~~ admitted communist and they seem to be quite strong in Nagoya.
If you desire his name & business address I will be happy to supply it.

I might also add there seems to be S.D., little patriotism among the present day seaman. A.L.L.
